

Violență Domestică

Zerfall

1 Exhausted

The sky has turned black
The sun is burning red
Our seeds are spoiled
Our brains are dried

Once a blooming playground
Now a loathsome dump
Everything is dying
There is not much left

Searing winds are raging
Putrid floods approaching
Our miserable lives
Will soon end abruptly

Violently erased
From our mother's surface
Cookroaches will feast
On our pitiful remains

2 Flies on a Pile of Shit

Braindead

Insatiable maggots
Crawling aimlessly
Without a purpose
From the cradle to the grave

Not smart enough
To learn from the past
The same old mistakes
Repeated again and again

Braindead

Do not question
Your predetermined fates
Devour, digest
And grow like a tumor

It makes me sick
To see you spawn
Consume and move on Continue the cycle

Braindead

3 Worthless

I'm longing for something
That's worth bleeding dry
A greater meaning
In this absurd world

The wheels are turning
The gears are grinding
But outside my bubble
I'm worthless

Every day a little older
Every day a little colder

They don't appreciate
What I have to give
My heart and my soul
Mean nothing to them

The wheels are turning
The gears are grinding
Everything I create
Is worthless

Every day a little older

4 Another broken Resolution

Protects from underneath
A glare from far away
Illuminates the gloom

Third eyes opened wide
Visions in fast motion
A superior ambition
To become a higher being

I'll change the world today
Turn it upside down
Bradiate all the ache

The climax weakens me
All intentions vanish
As my potency decreases
The will to kill is lost

Again I feel forlorn
Poisoned and defeated
Sinking into the blanket
Hope to drift away soon

The world changed me today
Turned me upside down
Filled me with ache again

5 Numbmed

I can barely feel anything
After decades of breathing
Tasted everything, seen it all
Again and again and again

Help me...

Countless times I've tried
In this everyday nonsense
To find some true passion
To walk an exciting path

Hit me!

Neither sweet nor bitter
Neither dead nor alive
Delight and disgust coalesce
It's all the same to me

Kick me!

All I have ever cared for
Turns to dust before my eyes
All endeavors in vain
My little world collapses

Crush me...

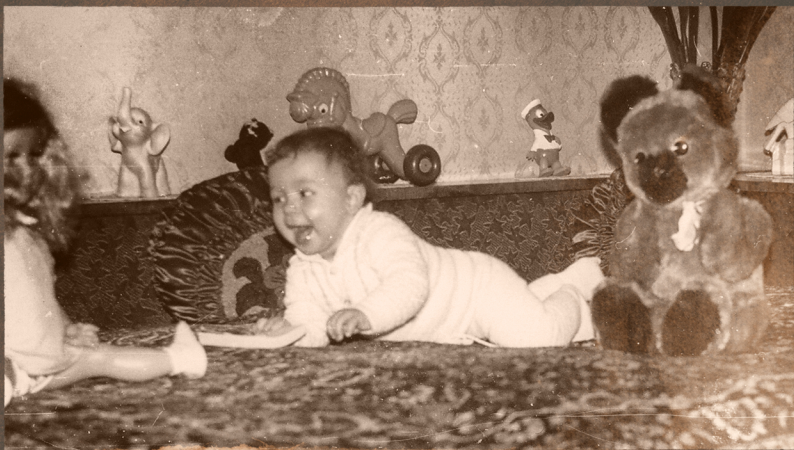

6 Suicide Note

I regret that I'm still here
Coping with all the nothingness
I've endured for far too long
Without any good reason

Vacuity all around me
First signs of decomposition
Every road ends in death
So I'll take the easy shortcut

I gave up line by line
Lost all fear and faced the truth
No more hope for miracles
No more foolish excuses

I'm gazing into the abyss
And it soothes my mind
Silence and peace forever
Only a heartbeat away
